Introduction: Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose, a prominent leader in India's freedom struggle, is remembered and honoured every year on his birth anniversary, January 23rd. Netaji, with his relentless pursuit of India's independence, is celebrated not only for his leadership but also for his unwavering commitment to the country's freedom. His life, contributions, and patriotism continue to inspire generations of Indians.

This year, the Department of Special Education, School of Education, Netaji Subhas Open University, organized a celebration of his birth anniversary to commemorate his legacy and reflect upon his exceptional contributions to the Indian independence movement. The event aimed to honour his spirit of courage, nationalism, and selflessness for society.

Objectives of the Programme:

1. Commemorate the life and contributions of Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose: To provide attendees with a deeper understanding of his role in India's independence struggle and highlight his leadership, vision, and sacrifices.
2. Inspire patriotism and national pride: The event aimed to instil a sense of patriotism and respect for the sacrifices made by freedom fighters like Netaji, motivating the youth to contribute towards the progress of the nation.
3. Educate and engage the community: To raise awareness about the significance of Netaji's ideals and philosophy, and how his ideas remain relevant in contemporary society.

4. Promote unity and collective spirit: The celebration aimed to bring people together, fostering a sense of unity, national identity, and collective responsibility among participants.

Report of the Programme: The University's officials and learners, particularly those from the B.Ed. Special Education and M.Ed. Special Education ODL programs, gathered for the National Flag Hoisting. The flag was hoisted by the Registrar, Mrs. Ananya Mitra, followed by a tribute at the statue of Netaji.

Flag Hoisting

The Registrar, NSOU, the Finance Officer, NSOU, the Director, School of Education, NSOU, and other officials delivered speeches in front of Netaji's statue, paying homage to his legacy.

Homage to Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose

After the ceremony, everyone gathered at Subhas Chandra Sabhaghar for the continuation of the program. The program commenced with a welcome address by the Registrar, Mrs. Ananya Mitra. Prof. Debi Prasad Nag Choudhury then delivered a speech, followed by a special lecture by Prof. Ritu Mathur, Professor of History, Department of History, School of Social Sciences. Her lecture focused on Netaji's contributions to education, discussing the significance of education in India, the importance of boarding schools, child education, and the concept of holistic education, as viewed through Netaji's perspective on revolution, justice, and freedom.

Welcome Speech

Following the lecture, the presidential address was delivered by Prof. Atindranath Dey, and the formal vote of thanks was presented by Mrs. Antara Choudhury, Assistant Professor and Coordinator of the M.Ed. Program, School of Education, NSOU.

The cultural program began with performances by the learners from the B.Ed. and M.Ed. Special Education ODL programs. The event concluded with the national anthem.
